PRESS RELEASE

AKKO Invest aims to become one of Hungary's leading integrated real estate services groups

Budapest, July 23, 2026 – AKKO Invest, listed on the Prime Market of the Budapest Stock Exchange, strives to become one of Hungary's leading integrated real estate services groups, while its renewed strategy aims to more than double last year's revenue within five years. AKKO aims to achieve dynamic growth by building on the financial strength of the Wallis Group, the professional background of the WING Group and the market position of its subsidiary, NEO Property Services, while also seeking to capitalize on the financing opportunities offered by the Hungarian capital market.

In its renewed strategy, AKKO Invest Nyrt., listed on the Prime Market of the Budapest Stock Exchange, targets stronger profitability and a revenue of more than HUF 100 billion within five years, which would mean more than doubling its 2025 revenue. The Board of Directors of AKKO Invest has approved the main directions of the Company's renewed strategy, which charts a new growth trajectory. AKKO Invest's principal shareholder is Mevinvest Kft., a member of the WING Group and a wholly owned subsidiary of Wingholding Zrt. Mevinvest and Wingholding are indirectly majority-owned by Tibor Veres, the owner of the Wallis Group, which has been operating for more than 36 years and is present in 18 countries. The objective of the renewed strategy is for AKKO to become one of Hungary's leading integrated real estate services groups by building on the financial strength of the Wallis Group, the professional background of the WING Group and the stable market position of its subsidiary, NEO Property Services, a key player in the Hungarian real estate services market. AKKO Invest intends to build a high-value-added service portfolio covering the entire real estate life cycle from design and investment preparation through construction, engineering project management and operation to refurbishment. The strategy focuses on strengthening capabilities in general design, BIM-based (Building Information Modeling) project preparation, engineering project management, general contracting, construction supervision, energy and innovative technology services through organic development and targeted acquisitions.

János Gerő, Chief Executive Officer of AKKO Invest, said that in implementing the strategy, the Company regards digitalization, data-driven operations, energy efficiency, robotics and automation as key elements of competitiveness in the real estate services market. He added that the objective is not merely to increase AKKO's size, but to simultaneously strengthen sustainable profitability, customer value, operational efficiency and shareholder value creation. Commenting on the renewed strategy, János Gerő highlighted that the general contracting business of the Company's subsidiary, NEO Property Services, is one of the areas with the greatest growth potential within the Group, which is also positioned to benefit from the growth of the residential and rental housing construction markets. The CEO added that the renewed strategy may contribute to increasing investor interest in the Company's shares and enhancing their liquidity. AKKO Invest aims to build an attractive long-term investment story on the Hungarian capital market through clear professional objectives, a strong ownership background, consistent execution and measurable value creation.
